

Dec. Sess.
1813.

According to the directions contained in this law, be entitled to poll at the same election, and that I will not admit any person to poll at the same election who is not in my judgment qualified to vote as aforesaid, and will in all things execute the office of judge of the election, according to the best of my knowledge, without favour or partiality, so help me God:” And that every clerk appointed by the said judges to register the votes as here-in-before directed, shall, before he proceeds to act as such, take the following oath or affirmation, (as the case may be;) “I, A. B. do swear, or affirm, that I will well and faithfully, without favor, affection or partiality, execute the office of clerk of the election now to be held, according to the best of my knowledge, so help me God.”

Commissioners shall make an oath.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That each commissioner shall, before he acts as such, take an oath or affirmation, (as the case may be,) before some justice of the peace for the county of Washington that he will faithfully and honestly, to the best of his skill and judgment, exercise the powers given, and discharge the duties required of him by this law, as a commissioner of Hager's Town, impartially and without favor or resentment to any, and without delay.

Meeting of commissioners.
Moderator.

7. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, shall meet upon the business of the town at least four times in every year, to wit: on the third Monday in April, in June, in September and in December, and oftener if they deem it necessary; that at their first meeting in each year, they shall elect from among themselves, one of their own members, to be their moderator, who shall, when so elected, continue to be their moderator for that year, provided he continue so long in office; and upon all questions the moderator shall be entitled to a vote as one of the commissioners.

Vacancies
in the board of commissioners.

8. AND BE IT ENACTED, That three commissioners shall make a quorum for the transaction of business, and if, during the year for which they were elected, any one of the five commissioners should die, resign, remove from the said town, or in any manner become incapable of acting as such, the remaining commissioners shall fill the vacancy so produced, by choosing and electing some person, qualified as by this law it is directed a commissioner shall be qualified, and such person so by them chosen and elected, shall be commissioners of Hager's Town until the next general election for commissioners.

Clerk to commissioners.

9. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint their own clerk, and assign to him his duties, and also to allow to him a salary, in their discretion, not exceeding the sum of sixty dollars per annum.

Commissioner's compensation.

10. AND BE IT ENACTED, That each commissioner shall be entitled to have two dollars per day for every day that the business of the said of the funds of the commissioners be called its or boundaries of in the additions the or parties by whom pay to each commissioner sum of one dollar

11. AND BE IT ENACTED, That each commissioner or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint their own clerk, and assign to him his duties, and also to allow to him a salary, in their discretion, not exceeding the sum of sixty dollars per annum. And that every commissioner shall, before he proceeds to act as such, take the following oath or affirmation, (as the case may be;) “I, A. B. do swear, or affirm, that I will well and faithfully, without favor, affection or partiality, execute the office of clerk of the election now to be held, according to the best of my knowledge, so help me God.”

12. AND BE IT ENACTED, That each commissioner shall, before he acts as such, take an oath or affirmation, (as the case may be,) before some justice of the peace for the county of Washington that he will faithfully and honestly, to the best of his skill and judgment, exercise the powers given, and discharge the duties required of him by this law, as a commissioner of Hager's Town, impartially and without favor or resentment to any, and without delay.

13. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, shall meet upon the business of the town at least four times in every year, to wit: on the third Monday in April, in June, in September and in December, and oftener if they deem it necessary; that at their first meeting in each year, they shall elect from among themselves, one of their own members, to be their moderator, who shall, when so elected, continue to be their moderator for that year, provided he continue so long in office; and upon all questions the moderator shall be entitled to a vote as one of the commissioners. And that three commissioners shall make a quorum for the transaction of business, and if, during the year for which they were elected, any one of the five commissioners should die, resign, remove from the said town, or in any manner become incapable of acting as such, the remaining commissioners shall fill the vacancy so produced, by choosing and electing some person, qualified as by this law it is directed a commissioner shall be qualified, and such person so by them chosen and elected, shall be commissioners of Hager's Town until the next general election for commissioners. And that the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint their own clerk, and assign to him his duties, and also to allow to him a salary, in their discretion, not exceeding the sum of sixty dollars per annum. And that every commissioner shall, before he proceeds to act as such, take the following oath or affirmation, (as the case may be;) “I, A. B. do swear, or affirm, that I will well and faithfully, without favor, affection or partiality, execute the office of clerk of the election now to be held, according to the best of my knowledge, so help me God.”