CHAPTER 25.

An act authorising William G. D. Worthington, to sell the real estate of Thomas Contee, late of Prince George's county, deceased.

WHEREAS Thomas C. Worthington, executor of the said Thomas Contee, W. G. Worthington, Sarah M. Worthington, Almyra Worthington, Jane M. Worthington, Walter B. C. Worthington, Alice Lee Contee, Philip Ashton Lee Contee, and Edmund Henry Contee, the heirs and residuary legatees of the said Thomas Contee (some of whom being minors, whose fathers respectively, to wit, William Worthington, and the Reverend Doctor Benjamin Contee, having signed a memorial to the General Assembly,) have represented, that the said Thomas Contee, died seized possessed of a valuable estate, both real and personal. That the said executor states the personal property is insufficient to pay the debts and legacies of the deceased; and the said heirs finding that the lands owned by the deceased, are so scattered through the various counties of this state, that they are rather a burthen and trouble, than a source of any valuable income; and thinking it will be greatly to their interest, as well as to that of the creditors, to sell and dispose of all the real estate, and after the payment of debts, whatever money may be due therefrom to said minor heirs, to be vested for their use in bank stock, or some other public funds; and said memorial appearing just and reasonable; Therefore,

Section 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William G. D. Worthington, aforesaid, be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered, as trustee, to sell at vendue, upon a credit of from one to three years, as to him in any particular instance may seem best, after giving such public notice of the time and place of any such sales, as he may consider sufficient, all the real estate of which the said Thomas Contee
