

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That for the purpose of keeping up and perpetuating the trustees of the Jerusalem Church, an election shall be held, in each and every year hereafter, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be; at which election each contributor, or person holding an interest in said property, shall be entitled to a vote; and for the purpose of ascertaining who are so entitled, the trustees shall record, in a book for that purpose, the names of all persons who have contributed to, or associated for the purpose of purchasing the property aforesaid, and which said vote, and interest in said property, may be assigned or transferred, by a simple transfer or assignment in writing, under the hand of the party, attested by one witness or more.

Dec. Sess.
1813.

Election of trustees.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said trustees now appointed, or who may be hereafter elected, or a majority of them, and their successors, from time to time, as occasion may require, may and shall meet together to transact the business and superintend and protect the property put under their trust and care, and shall make, constitute and alter such rules and orders for regulating their own proceedings, and the management of the temporal concerns of the Jerusalem Church, as they shall judge most fit: Provided, that such rules and regulations be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this state.

Trustees shall meet to transact business.
Rules and orders.

Proviso:

CHAPTER 93.

An act for the benefit of the heirs of William Ringgold, of Kent county.

Passed Jan.
26, 1814.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of John Carvil Hynson Junr. guardian of the children of William Ringgold late of Kent county deceased, that the income of the estate of the said William Ringgold is inadequate to the maintenance and education of the said children, and that without a sale be made of some part of his real estate, and a beneficial investment of the proceeds thereof the said children will suffer, and whereas it is also represented by the said petition, that a part of the estate of the said William Ringgold consists of fifty acres of wood land, being a part of a tract of land called "Addition" lying in Kent county aforesaid, which peice of property is not only unproductive but is also expensive to the estate: Therefore,

Section 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said John Carvill Hynson Junr. be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered as trustee to dispose of in the manner and upon such terms as shall be directed by the orphans' court of Kent county, all that part of a tract of land situate in Kent county, called "Addition," of which William Ringgold late of said county died seized.

Trustee to dispose of said land.