

DEC. SESS.
1814.

one quarter master and one paymaster, to be taken from the subalterns of the regiment, and one surgeon, and two surgeon's mates; for each battalion, one major with one adjutant, to be taken from the subalterns of the battalion, one sergeant major, one quarter master sergeant, one drum major, and one fife-major; for each company of infantry, one captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant and one ensign; and for each company of artillery, one captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant and one third lieutenant.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That before the paymasters, shall respectively enter on the duties of their offices, they shall respectively give bond to this state, for the faithful performance of the duties and trusts of their respective offices, with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the governor and council, and in such sums respectively as they shall prescribe.

Paymasters to give bond.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the major general commanding the said division, shall be and hereby is authorised, from time to time, and for such time as he may judge necessary for the service, to appoint and employ one or more topographical engineers and to prescribe their duties, and to revoke such appointments when he shall think fit, and that the said engineers, while so employed, shall respectively have the rank, pay and emoluments of majors of infantry.

Topographical engineers.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said major general shall be and hereby is authorised and empowered, to appoint for each company of artillery, one conductor of artillery, to be taken from the subalterns of the company, and to prescribe his duties.

Conductors of artillery.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the governor and council be, and hereby are authorised to appoint to each brigade, one chaplain with the pay and emoluments of a major of infantry.

Chaplains.

7. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the governor and council shall be, and hereby are authorised to establish from time to time such regulations for the recruiting service for the said troops as they shall judge proper.

Recruiting service.

8. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the pay, rations, extra allowances, and emoluments of the officers, staff, non-commissioned officers and privates of the said troops, and of all persons employed in the said service, shall be the same with those now allowed and paid by the United States to the regular service, except so far as is herein otherwise provided.

Pay and rations.

9. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician or private of the said division, shall be disabled by wounds, or otherwise while in the line of his duty in public service, he shall be entitled to and receive a pension from this state, at such rate as is or may be allowed by the United State in similar cases occurring in their service, and Pensions.