

and which have been discontinued by reason of the said court not being held or adjourned according to law, shall be revived and continued, and be as valid as if the said court had not been discontinued, and shall stand and remain in the same state and condition as they would have stood had the said court been regularly held and adjourned.

DEC. SESS.
1814.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all proceedings and acts of the said court which have occurred since the discontinuance thereof shall be and they are hereby made as valid and effective as if the said court had been held and adjourned agreeably to law.

Acts made valid.

CHAPTER 14.

An act to confirm and make valid the last will and testament of William MacCreery, late of Baltimore county deceased.

Passed Jan.
5, 1815.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the last will and testament of William MacCreery, late of Baltimore county, deceased, bearing date on the twentieth day of November in the year eighteen hundred and thirteen, and filed in the office of the Register of Wills for Baltimore county, shall have the same effect and operation, and every devise and bequest therein contained shall be as valid and available in law, as if the said last will and testament had been attested and subscribed in the presence of the said William MacCreery, by three credible witnesses; and in all other respects had been executed and proved conformably to the laws of this state relating to devises of lands and tenements; Provided, that no right, title or estate which any heir or heirs of the said William MacCreery may have given, granted, transferred, assigned or conveyed to any person or persons whatsoever before the passage of this act, touching or concerning the estate left by the said William MacCreery, shall be in any manner annulled or affected by this act confirming the will of the said William MacCreery.

Will made valid.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 15.

An act to lay out and make public a road in Baltimore county.

Passed Jun
6, 1815.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Johnson, Thomas Hillen, Edward Johnson, Nicholas M. Bosley and Joshua Stevenson, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they or a majority of them are hereby authorised and empowered to lay out, open and make at the expence of the petitioners, a road thirty feet in width, from the Warren Manufactory now erecting on the Gunpowder falls, to the York turnpike road, in the best practicable direction to intersect said turnpike road the nature of the ground will admit of, and with as little inconvenience to Commissioners—plot.