CHAPTER 188.

An act to condemn a lot in the city of Baltimore for a street.

WHEREAS the chairman and trustees of the Baltimore Exchange company on behalf of said company have petitioned the General Assembly, that a lot in the city of Baltimore beginning at the north west corner of a lot lately belonging to Justus Hoppe, on Second street, and running thence west with the said street twenty-five feet to a lot belonging to Cumberland Dugan, thence south sixty six feet with the last mentioned lot, to a lot now belonging to the said company, and lately owned by the trustees of William Belton, and others, and thence east bounding on the said last mentioned lot, twenty five feet to the said lot lately belonging to Justus Hoppe, and thence north with the last mentioned lot sixty-six feet to the place of beginning; in which said lot a certain John Mason Forster, has a leasehold interest for ninety-nine years, renewable forever, subject to a ground rent to the heirs of John O'Donnell, deceased, who own the feesimple of the same, should be condemned for a street for the use and benefit of said Exchange, and of the said city, the said Exchange company paying the persons so interested therein a full compensation for their respective interests according to a just valuation thereof to be made under the authority of the Legislature.

Passed Jan.
27, 1816.

AND WHEREAS it also appears to this Legislature, that the said Forster is absent from this state and resides in a re-
