

the levy court of Calvert county for the time being, to borrow a sum not exceeding four thousand dollars of any bank or banks in this state for the purpose of rebuilding the court house of the said county which was destroyed by the enemy during the late war, which money when so borrowed shall be levied on the assessable property of the said county in such proportions annually as will discharge the said sum with interest in the course of ten years.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That each and every of the chartered banks of this state are hereby empowered in the discretion of their directors to loan the above sum of four thousand dollars or any less sum, to the justices of the Levy court of Calvert county, upon such terms as may be agreed upon in conformity with this act.

DEC. SESS.
1815.

Banks may lend.

CHAPTER 199.

An act to settle and ascertain the salary of the members of the council for the ensuing year.

Passed Jan.
28, 1816.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each member of the council shall be entitled to receive for the ensuing year, the sum of five hundred and thirty-three dollars and thirty-three cents and one third of a cent, current money, for his salary.

Salaries.

CHAPTER 200.

An act for the relief of William S. Gaither of Alleghany County.

Passed Jan.
28, 1816.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges or any one judge of Alleghany county court be, and they or any one of them are hereby authorised and directed to extend to William S. Gaither the benefit and relief of the act of assembly passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the supplements thereto, without compelling him to produce the assent of two thirds in amount of his creditors, and to extend to the said William S. Gaither, all the benefits, advantages and provisions of the aforesaid act and the supplements thereto, in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as if he had obtained the assent of two thirds of his creditors, to his release under the same.

Benefits of insolvent laws may be granted.

CHAPTER 201.

A further supplement to an act entitled, an act for extending Green street, in the city of Baltimore.

Passed Jan.
28, 1816.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the city collector of Baltimore, to collect the damages, that shall be assessed by the commissioners to be appointed by the mayor of said city, under the provisions of the former supplement, to assess the same with all costs and expenses in the same manner that the city taxes of said city are authorised to be collected, or in case of neglect or refusal to pay, by public sale of the property ascertained and determined to be benefited by the law to which this is a further supplement, or the supplement thereto, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, of the person or persons so neglecting or refusing to pay, he giving at least thirty days notice of such sale previous thereto, in two or more of the newspapers published in the city of Baltimore; and when collected, to pay over the proper, and to appoint a trustee to sell the same.

To collect damages, &c.

ND.

That any sale made by the orphans court, under this act, shall be made by the orphans court of the property shall be made; and the said bond shall be lodged with the orphans court; and the said bond shall be put in suit by any person in the manner as administration

That the trustee appointed by the orphans court, shall pay out of the money of Maryland, the balance now due to the said William Barrow, and the balance (if any) due to the said orphans court.

That any conveyance or deed made in pursuance of the directions of the orphans court, shall be declared to be valid and effectual in law, and interest, which the said orphans court, had in and to the said property, or purchasers of the same. That in case either of the death of the said orphans court, at age, the sum of money due to the said orphans court, shall pass and descend to the persons, that the property of the said orphans court, not have been sold by virtue of the purchase money of the said orphans court, and benefit of the said orphans court.

197.

the proceedings of the orphans court of the orphans court.

the General Assembly of Maryland, That the decisions of the orphans court, shall be taken place since the said orphans court, and the same are hereby confirmed as if there had been no objection to the said orphans court, and that all the proceedings now depending on the said orphans court, are hereby revived, and confirmed to all intents and purposes, as if the said sessions of the orphans court, were held at the time appointed.

198.

of Calvert county to borrow money of the banks of this state.

the General Assembly of Maryland, That it is lawful for the justices of the peace of the said county, to