

they now can or hereafter may enforce the attendance of witnesses in other cases. Dec. Ses. 1816

11. And be it enacted, That the officers of the several county courts of this state shall be entitled to receive the same fees for all business done in virtue of this law as are now, or shall be hereafter received for like services, to be levied, collected and paid, as aforesaid. Officers fees.

12. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to extend to repeal the power heretofore vested in the several levy courts of this state in and relating to the altering of public roads through the lands of persons petitioning for such alteration. This act not to repeal power of levy court relating to altering roads, &c.

CHAPTER 262.

An act to confirm and make valid a Deed from Ralph Randolph Wormley, as Attorney for Edmund Jenings, of London, to Richard Norris. Passed Feb. 5.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the deed of conveyance made and executed by Ralph Randolph Wormley to Richard Norris, of the city of Baltimore, in Baltimore county, and state of Maryland, dated the fourteenth day of January, eighteen hundred and seventeen, and acknowledged before Joseph H. Nicholson, chief judge of the sixth judicial district of Maryland, made in virtue of a power of attorney from Edmund Jenings, of London, in the Kingdom of Great Britain, Esquire, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April, eighteen hundred and sixteen, authorising and appointing the said Ralph Randolph Wormley to sell and convey the right, title and interest, of the said Edmund Jenings, to certain lands therein mentioned, be and the same is hereby declared good and sufficient in law to pass, transfer and convey, all the right and estate of the said Edmund Jenings in and to the lands, or parts of land therein mentioned, to the said Richard Norris, his heirs and assigns for ever. Deed decreed good and sufficient.

CHAPTER 263.

An act to enable Milcah Owings, the Guardian of Caleb Daughady, Eleanor Daughady, John Stewart, Susan Stewart and Margaret Stewart, to sell and convey part of a Lot of Ground in the City of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 5.

WHEREAS, Milcah Owings, of the city of Baltimore, guardian of Caleb Daughady, Eleanor Daughady, John Stewart, Susan Stewart and Margaret Stewart, has represented to this general assembly, that her wards are the proprietors of a certain lot in the city of Baltimore, and that a part thereof which is unproductive can be sold to great advantage, and that the money arising therefrom should be invested to the advantage of her said wards, which said part is contained within the following metes and bounds, to wit: Beginning at the north east corner of the part of the lot conveyed to Caleb Owings by Jacob Walter, and running and bounding on the north line of said part westwardly fifty feet six inches, thence south three and a half degrees, east sixteen feet six inches, to the southwardmost line of said part, Preamble.