ng of the same, lisadvantages of I, shall be levied nall be paid over ds the said road assessed for the shall be paid bened agreeably to

ners before they e of the peace, udice, assess the e lands the said persons through or their guardies, aggrieved by he said commisfor any justice of sue his warrant, ff of the county, ed men, qualified o meet upon the tice at least shall I the said jurors, fore some justice ion, prejudice or person or persons en, by reason of their land, shall ages accordingly, disadvantages, if inal and concluded, that nothing the said commisgh the buildings, persons, without oners shall be ens and attendance, ined by the levy ertificate shall be ing from the sured, collected and nt expense to the nesses, it shall be he petition being certain day during quisition as aforegrand jury in and and the said counlar the powers to same manner that they now can or hereafter may enforce the attendance of wit- Dec. Ses. 1816 nesses in other cases.

11. And be it enacted, That the officers of the several county Officers fees, courts of this state shall be entitled to receive the same fees for all business done in virtue of this law as are now, or shall be hereafter received for like services, to be levied, collected and paid, as aforesaid.

12. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be con- This act not to strued to extend to repeal the power heretofore vested in the repeal power of several levy courts of this state in and relating to the altering of levy court reseveral levy courts of this state in and relating to the altering of lating to alterpublic roads through the lands of persons petitioning for such al- ing roads, &c.

CHAPTER 262.

An act to confirm and make valid a Deed from Ralph Ran- Passed Feb. 5. dolph Wormley, as Attorney for Edmund Jenings, of London, to Richard Norris.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Deed decreed That the deed of conveyance made and executed by Ralph Ran- good and sufdolph Wormley to Richard Norris, of the city of Baltimore, in Baltimore county, and state of Maryland, dated the fourteenth day of January, eighteen hundred and seventeen, and acknowledged before Joseph H. Nicholson, chief judge of the sixth judicial district of Maryland, made in virtue of a power of attorney from Edmund Jenings, of London, in the Kingdom of Great Britain, Esquire, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April, eighteen hundred and sixteen, authorising and appointing the said Ralph Randolph Wormley to sell and convey the right, title and interest, of the said Edmund Jenings, to certain lands therein mentioned, be and the same is hereby declared good and sufficient in law to pass, transfer and convey, all the right and estate of the said Edmund Jenings in and to the lands, or parts of land therein mentioned, to the said Richard Norris, his heirs and assigns for ever.

CHAPTER 263.

An act to enable Milcah Owings, the Guardian of Caleb Passed Feb. 5. Daughady, Eleanor Daughady, John Stewart, Susan Stewart and Margaret Stewart, to sell and convey part of a Lot of Ground in the City of Baltimore.

WHEREAS, Milcah Owings, of the city of Baltimore, guardian Preamble. of Caleb Daughady, Eleanor Daughady, John Stewart, Susan Stewart and Margaret Stewart, has represented to this general assembly, that her wards are the proprietors of a certain lot in the city of Baltimore, and that a part thereof which is unproductive can be sold to great advantage, and that the money arising therefrom should be invested to the advantage of her said wards, which said part is contained within the following metes and bounds, to wit : Beginning at the north east corner of the part of the lot conveyed to Caleb Owings by Jacob Walter, and running and bounding on the north line of said part westwardly fifty feet six inches, thence south three and a half degrees, east sixteen feet six inches, to the southwardmost line of said part,