

through or over which the said roads may pass, to cut down, or cause to be cut down, any tree or trees growing on any of the adjacent lands to such place where bridges may be necessary as aforesaid, and the same trees may maul or carry away off such lands, and to apply the same to the making of the said bridges, or other necessary repairs or conveniencies on the said roads; Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any supervisor to enter any enclosure for the purpose of obtaining any stone, gravel, earth or timber, for the purposes aforesaid, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, or if a minor or minors, without the consent of his, her, or their guardians; and that it shall be the duty of each supervisor to make a separate return, on oath, of the timber taken by him for the use of the said roads, and a list of the persons to whom it belonged, with his view of the value thereof, which shall be levied on the assessable property of the said county, for the use of the person or persons to whom it belonged, and collected as other county charges are.

Dec. Ses 1817

Proviso

10. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of regulating wages for labourers, carts and team, there shall be allowed for each cart or wagon and sufficient team not exceeding two dollars per day, and for each labourer one dollar per day, and for each supervisor one dollar and fifty cents per day, to be regulated by the levy court of said county; and the supervisor may employ able bodied hands to work on the roads who may not be bound to work, and they shall be allowed as those who are bound to work.

Wages allowed.

11. And be it enacted, That the supervisors shall render to the levy court in April eighteen hundred and eighteen, a true account of all work done on said roads, and by whom, and also all team and carts or wagons employed on the road, and to whom they belonged, and the person or persons who shall thus work or furnish team, shall be allowed in the levy list for eighteen hundred and eighteen for the same.

Account to be rendered to levy court

12. And be it enacted, That the levy court shall meet at Snow-Hill some time in the month of December eighteen hundred and eighteen, and in December annually, having first given notice, by advertisements set up in the public places in the county, of the time of meeting, and each supervisor shall meet and render an account to the levy court, on oath, of all work and services done on the roads, and of all timber used as aforesaid, not rendered before, and by whom the work was done, and to whom the timber belonged, and a like account, on oath, of his own services, including his services for notifying the hands to work, for which services in notifying hands to work, the levy court may allow each supervisor not exceeding ten days; and the levy court shall direct their clerk to make out the amount due to each person for his services as aforesaid, with an alphabetical list of the names to whom the same may be due, and the clerk shall deliver said list to the collector of the county, within twenty days after the said court shall order the same to be made, and the collector shall pay the same to the persons to whom due, out of the money collected for the county levy, or allow each person the same in their levy list, in the same manner that he is bound to pay other county charges.

Court to meet to receive accounts

13. And be it enacted. That no supervisor shall proceed to work on any public road with a less number of able bodied labourers

Supervisor not to work with less than five labourers.