Preamble.

CHAPTER 187.

An act for the relief of Peregrine Wilmer.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly, that Samuel Ewing, and Elizabeth Ann Maria Ewing his wife, one of the heirs at law of John R. Pratt, petitioned to Queen Anne's county court, for the division of the lands which had descended to the heirs at law of John R. Pratt, and that commissioners were appointed accordingly, and made return thereof that the lands would not admit of division, and that the said Samuel Ewing and wife, sold the said lands to one Samuel Jones, who after the sale, appeared in court, and elected to take the same at the valuation, and gave bonds in the place of the said Samuel Ewing, to the heirs at law of the said John R. Pratt, and that the said Samuel Jones hath since sold the same to the said Peregrine Wilmer: And whereas great doubts are entertained, whether the proceeding of the said court, in permitting the said Samuel Jones to make his election as aforesaid, was valid, therefore,

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said proceeding in Queen Anne's county court be and the same is hereby confirmed and made valid.

2. Be it enacted, That the said John Watson, the surviving commissioner, is hereby empowered to execute a deed to the said Peregrine Wilmer, conveying all the right which descended from the said John R. Pratt to his heirs at law, for the land contained in the commission and return; Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the claims which the heirs of the said John R. Pratt have upon the lands by and in virtue of the several acts of assembly which secure the payment of the money respectively due them.

Proceedings of county court made valid.

Surviving commissioner empowered to execute a deed.

Proviso.
