

CHAP. 210.

CHAPTER 210.

Passed Feb 19 1819

No person to exercise employment of broker until he has obtained a license.

Broker's oath.

Not to act until he has entered into bond to the state.

Bond to be recorded in court of appeals.

License to continue for one year

Every person obtaining license to pay $500.

Passed Feb 19 1819

Preamble.

Swine found going at large in town may be impounded, &c.

An act providing for the increase of the Revenue of this State, by laying a tax on Brokers and Lottery Office Keepers.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, no person shall exercise the employment of a broker in buying and selling such bank notes as by the laws of this state it is or may be lawful for a broker to buy or sell, or lottery tickets, until he shall have previously obtained a licence therefor from the governor and council.

2. And be it enacted, That before any broker shall proceed to act as such, he shall take an oath, or affirmation, as the case may be, to the effect following, viz. "I do solemnly promise and swear, (or affirm,) that I will truly, honestly and faithfully, execute the office of broker, between party and party, in all things relating to the duty of the said office, without fraud or collusion, and to the best of my skill and judgment.

3. And be it enacted, That no person shall be admitted to act as a broker aforesaid, until he shall, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the treasurer of the western shore of Maryland, enter into bond to the state of Maryland, in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, conditioned to the effect following: "The conditions of this obligation is such, that if the above bound do and shall well and truly use, execute and perform the office and employment of a broker, between party and party, without fraud, collusion, imposition, or any corrupt or crafty devices, and do and shall faithfully execute every trust committed to him as a broker, then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force and virtue in law."

4. And be it enacted, That the bond so as aforesaid to be executed, shall be lodged in the office of the clerk of the court of appeals, to be by him recorded, and upon an office copy thereof, suits may be instituted, in which the plea of non est factum shall not be allowed.

5. And be it enacted. That the licence as aforesaid shall have continuance for one year only; and if any person not being licensed as aforesaid, shall act as broker aforesaid, he shall pay and forfeit two thousand dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered by action of debt, one half to the use of him who shall sue for the same, and the other half to the use of the state.

6. And be it enacted, That every person obtaining a licence as aforesaid, shall pay therefor the sum of five hundred dollars to the treasury of the western shore.

CHAPTER 211.

Passed Feb 19 1819 An act to prevent swine from going at large in Queen's Town, in Queen Anne's county.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that sundry persons do raise and keep great number of swine, and suffer them to remain at large in said town, to the great injury of the inhabitants thereof, therefore,

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That from and after the first day of May next, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever to raise or keep any swine within the said town, or within one half mile from the centre thereof,