1819.

CHAP. XXIX.

CHAP. 29.

A Supplement to the Act, entitled, An act for the benefit of the Heirs of John Thomas, late of Harford County, deceased.

Passed Dec 31 Trustees to convey land

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for the trustees named in the original act to which this is a supplement, to convey the lands therein directed to be sold, either to the purchaser or purchasers, or to the heirs and assigns of the purchasers of said lands, and their heirs and assigns for ever, they first complying with the requisites of the original act.

CHAP. XXX.

An Act for the benefit of the Executors of Henry Strause, late of Montgomery County, deceased. Passed Jan 3, 1820

1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the orphans court of Washington county be and they are hereby empowered, to pass all claims against the estate of Henry Strause, deceased, of Montgomery county, in the same manner as if letters testamentary had been granted by said court, and that the passage of any such claim by the orphans court of Washington county, shall be an authority to the executors of the said Henry Strause to pay the same, and that the said executors shall be entitled to credit for all payments of claims so passed in the settlement of their account, as executors, in the orphans court of Montgomery county.

Orphans court of Washington empowered to pass claims

2. And be it enacted, That the register of wills of Washington county shall keep an account of all such claims passed by said court, and that a copy of the list thereof, certified by him, under his hand and the seal of his office, shall be sufficient evidence to the orphans court of Montgomery county that said claims have been regularly authenticated and passed.

Register to keep an account of all such
