CHAPTER 620

(House Bill 557)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 209 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title "Testamentary Laws", sub-title "Guardians and Infants Not Residing in This State", in order to remove therefrom a word not found in the last amendment to this section.

WHEREAS, in Section 209 of Article 93 of the Code, a word appears which was not contained in the last amendment made to this section by Act of the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable to correct the error in order that it may not be continued in future editions of the Code; now, therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 209 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, (1951 Edition), title "Testamentary Law", sub-title "Guardians and Infants Not Residing in This State", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendment, to read as follows:

209. Where any infant not residing in this State is entitled to any property or estate, real, personal or mixed, or to any debts or choses in action in this State, or due by or recoverable from any person or persons, corporation or corporations in this State, or from any estate upon which letters testamentary or of administration have been granted in this State, having no guardian appointed in this State, but having a guardian appointed in this State, district or territory in which the infant resides, duly qualified according to the laws thereof, and who shall there have [been] given good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his trust as such, or in words to that effect, then, and in such case the orphans' court of the county or city
