

1, 1956, shall be continued in service or restored to his teaching position or other comparable service in accordance with said sub-sections, after he reaches the age of 70 years and until he has served six calendar quarters in service, after July 1, 1956 or until he has served the minimum number of calendar quarters for him to qualify for minimum social security benefits. Should any beneficiary under the Teachers' Retirement System be restored to active service under the provisions of this Act, all allowances that he is receiving under such system shall cease. He shall again become a member of the retirement system and shall contribute thereafter at the same rate he paid prior to retirement. In no event shall such extended employment in service continue beyond the attainment of six calendar quarters of coverage under the social security system or the end of the teaching semester following the attainment of such coverage. Such a continuation in teaching employment is solely for the purpose of allowing the member in service to qualify for minimum social security benefits, and is not to be construed as repealing or affecting in any manner any other requirement as to attendance, satisfactory performance or other working or employment requirements concerning such employees.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall expire automatically and with no further action required by the General Assembly of Maryland on January 1, 1958.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 10, 1957.

CHAPTER 637

(House Bill 625)

AN ACT temporarily to waive the provisions of Section 8 (1) (b) of Article 73B of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title "Pensions", in order to provide that certain members of the State Employees' Retirement System who hold such membership by virtue of being officers or employees of a municipal corporation in this State and pursuant to the sub-title "Employees of Municipal Corporations" in said Article 73B, shall be continued in service by their appointing authorities, after such members reach the age of 70 years, until they have served respectively in such service for a period of six calendar quarters after January 1, 1957, or the minimum number of calendar quarters for the purpose of making
