

Such amendment or amendments shall be made in the following manner:

(1) Such amendment or amendments shall first be proposed by the Commission by the adoption of a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment or amendments and directing that it or they be submitted to the governing body or governing bodies of the county composing the District. Said resolution shall contain the language of the proposed amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation by providing that said articles shall be amended so as to read as therein set forth in full, or that any provision be amended so as to read as therein set forth in full, or that the matter stated in said resolution be added to or stricken from the articles of incorporation. After the amendment or amendments have been submitted to the governing body or governing bodies of the county composing the District, such governing body or governing bodies shall adopt or reject the same by resolution or ordinance.

(2) After an amendment or amendments have been adopted by the said governing body or governing bodies, articles of amendment shall be executed under the seal of the District by two duly authorized officers of the District who shall also verify under oath the matters and facts set forth in said articles of amendment.

(3) Said articles of amendment shall contain (a) the name and location of the principal office of the District; (b) the amendment or amendments, in full, adopted by the governing body of the county composing the District and a statement that the same were proposed by the Commission of the District and have been adopted by the governing body of the county composing the District.

(4) The articles of amendment shall be filed with the State Tax Commission which shall receive the same and endorse thereon the date and time of such receipt. If the Chairman or the Secretary of said Commission finds that the articles of amendment conform to law he shall forthwith endorse his approval thereon and issue a certificate of approval to which shall be attached a copy of the approved articles. Upon the issuance of such certificate of approval by the Chairman or Secretary of said Commission said articles of amendment shall become effective and be in full force and effect and such articles of amendment shall be conclusively deemed to have been lawfully and properly proposed and adopted. Promptly after the issuance of a certificate of approval the said Commission shall record said articles of amendments, together with the endorsements thereon, in the book kept by it for the purpose of recording articles of incorporation.

877. (a) The powers of each District shall be exercised by a governing body (herein called the "Commission") composed as follows:

(1) The Commission shall be composed of three citizens of such county, no one of whom shall hold any other office of said county during his term of office on said Commission. The governing body of such county shall appoint the members of the Commission, whose terms of office shall commence on the date of appointment, and one of whom shall serve for two years, one for four years, and one for six years from the January first next succeeding the date of incorporation, and thereafter the said governing body shall, at a meeting held not later than one month prior to January first in each year in which
