

or more full time employees on duty regularly for accomplishing the work of said office, the Supervisors, upon request at any time the said office is open during the usual hours of business, shall permit any person to register as a voter, or to transfer, affiliate or change his registration subject to the requirement of Section 19 of this Article; provided, however, that the Board of Supervisors of Elections shall appoint two registrars as provided for in Section 5 (b) of this Article, except that one shall be appointed by the member of the Board who shall have been selected from the political party opposite that of the Governor and shall be removable by such member of the Board in his discretion. The Boards of Supervisors of Elections in each county or City may also in their discretion set up such supplemental boards of registry as from time to time they may deem necessary to aid and expedite the work of the permanent Board; such supplemental Boards shall consist of AT LEAST two members, each of opposite political parties and shall be appointed, one by the Supervisors representing the majority political party and one by the Supervisor representing the chief minority party, as the said parties are now or may hereafter be constituted in this State.

TEMPORARY CERTIFICATES OF REGISTRATION

40. Temporary Certificates of Registration. (a) Issue. If at any general, special or primary election, it shall appear that the original registration form of any person presenting himself as a voter is not among the cards constituting the precinct register for use on election day, such ~~persons~~ PERSON may apply to the Board of Supervisors of Elections, or a majority of them, on forms to be provided by said Board, for a certificate entitling him to cast his ballot in spite of the absence of such original registration form. Upon receipt of any application ~~of~~ FOR such certificate, accompanied by proof of the identity of the applicant, a majority of the Board shall inspect the duplicate registration forms retained in the office of said Board, and if such inspection discloses that the applicant is a duly registered voter, a majority of the Board shall make reasonable effort to locate the applicant's original registration form. If such form is not found, and if a majority of the Board shall be satisfied that its absence is not due to fraud or malfeasance, such Board or a majority thereof shall issue its certificate, a copy of which shall be retained by the Board, to the judges of election of the precinct in which the applicant is found to be a registered voter, which certificate shall be marked "Temporary Certificate of Registration" and shall be sufficient authority to permit such voter to cast his ballot in such precinct as though his original registration form were present. Such certificate, when presented to the judges of election, shall be retained by said judges and returned to the Board of Supervisors of Elections at the time prescribed for the return of the original registration forms.

(b) Duplicate Registration. At the same time a voter receives such temporary certificate he shall sign a new original registration form containing the same information shown by such voter's duplicate registration form, which new original registration form shall entitle such voter, subject to the provisions of this Article, to vote at any subsequent election.

41. Correction of Registration List. (a) Applications. Any voter may file with the Board of Supervisors of Elections, with the per-
