

designate by a cross (X) mark in a square at the right of the name of each candidate, and at the right of each question, his choice of candidate and his answer to such question.

(e) Party Designation. To the right of the name of each candidate upon the official ballot, and properly separated from said name, and immediately to the left of the square, opposite the name of the candidate, and in line therewith, shall be added the designation of the party or principle which the candidate represents, as is duly contained in the certificate of nomination or nomination papers. Said designation of the party shall consist solely of the name of the party, to be expressed in one word only, and nothing more; provided, however, that the names of all candidates for Judge of the Circuit Courts for the several counties or of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, or for Judge of the Court of Appeals, shall be placed on the ballots or voting machines without any party label or other distinguishing mark or location which might directly or indirectly indicate the party affiliation of any such candidate.

(f) Instructions. Above the group of names of the candidates for each office, and upon a separate line immediately underneath the designation of the office, there shall be printed in bold, plain roman capitals of twelve-point pica type, an appropriate direction or instruction to the voter informing him of the number of persons for whom he may lawfully vote for the particular office mentioned immediately above each such direction, as: "Vote for One", "Vote for Two", or "Vote for Six", as the case may be.

(g) Nomination by Petition. When the name of a political party is given in connection with the name of a candidate nominated by petition, it shall be stated on the ballot to the right of the name of the candidate; but if there shall have been any nomination for the same office by a convention or primary election claiming the same party name, duly certified as hereinbefore provided, there shall be then printed to the right of the name of the candidate so nominated by petition, only the word "Independent" and none other. If the same party name shall be claimed on behalf of nominations made by more than one convention or primary election and duly certified as aforesaid, the officers by whom the ballot is to be prepared, or a majority of them, shall determine which nominees are justly entitled to the party name, and to the right of the names of other nominees there shall be printed upon the ballot only the word "Independent" and none other.

(h) President and Vice-President. There shall be provided at the right of the surnames of the candidates for President and Vice-President, so formed as to include both names, a sufficient clear space in which each voter may designate by a cross (X) mark his choice for electors; and a cross (X) mark placed by the voter in the square opposite the names of the candidates of a party for President and Vice-President shall be deemed and counted as a vote for each of the Presidential Electors of said party filed according to the provisions of this Article.

(i) Constitutional Amendments and Referenda. Each ballot shall contain a condensed statement in understandable language of every Constitutional amendment or other question to be submitted to the vote of the people at any election. It shall be sufficient in any case
