

the production of physical evidence before it from witnesses upon whom process is served anywhere within the State as in civil cases in the Circuit Court of the County or the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, by subpoena issued over the signature of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman and the seal of the Board. Upon request by an accused psychologist and statement under oath that the testimony or evidence is necessary to his defense, the Board shall use this subpoena power in behalf of the accused psychologist.

(e) Any person who feels aggrieved, by reason of the suspension or revocation of his registration or of the reprimand, may file suit within thirty days after receiving notice of the Board's order to annul or vacate the order of the Board. The suit shall be filed against the Board as defendant and service of process shall be upon either the Chairman or Secretary of the Board. The suit shall be tried as other civil cases; the burden of proof is upon the plaintiff assailing the order of suspension, revocation or reprimand.

(f) For reasons it deems sufficient and upon a vote of a majority of its members, the Board may restore a certification which has been revoked, reduce the period of suspension or withdraw a reprimand.

~~596.~~ Privileged Communications. The confidential relations and communications between a certified psychologist and his client are placed on the same basis as provided by the law of evidence for those between an attorney and his client. Nothing in this sub-title shall be construed to require such privileged communications to be disclosed.

~~597.~~ 596. Violations. Any person who, after December 31, 1957, represents himself to be a psychologist within this State without being certified or exempted in accordance with the provisions of this sub-title is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or be confined in jail for not more than six months, or both. Each violation is a separate offense.

~~598.~~ 597. Fees. The fees charged by the Board will in general reflect the magnitude of the Board's work in connection with processing applications. The fee for applying for certification will be Ten Dollars ($10.00). The fee for conducting written and oral examinations will be Fifteen Dollars ($15.00). The fee for a certificate will be Ten Dollars ($10.00). The fee for renewal of certificate will be Two Dollars ($2.00) annually.

~~599.~~ 598. Disclaimer Clause. Nothing herein shall authorize any person to engage in the practice of medicine as defined by the laws of this State.

~~600.~~ 599. Protection of Board from Civil Action. No member of the Board shall be liable to civil action for any act performed in good faith in the performance of its duties as set forth in this sub-title.

~~601.~~ *600. Periodic Review and Revision. In order for this sub-title to continue to protect the public and to reflect the new developments in research, training, and the practice of psychology, it will be subject to periodic review and possible revision.
