

succession, as received, and cause said number to be entered in a book kept for that purpose, together with the time said hogshead was received, the name of the [vessel or other] conveyance, if known to him, by which said hogshead was brought to the City of Baltimore and of the owner or consignee of said tobacco, and the initials or other trade-marks on said hogshead identifying the same, and when said hogshead shall be removed from said warehouse he shall cause an entry to be made in some book, kept for that purpose, of the time when the same was removed, the name of the person to whom the same was delivered and of the [vessel or other] conveyance by which the same was taken away.

18. It shall be the duty of each tobacco inspector to cause all tobacco in the warehouse to which he may have been appointed to be inspected as speedily as practicable [in regular order as numbered] without favor, affection or partiality to anyone [; and each violation of the provision of this section shall subject the offender to a penalty of One Hundred Dollars, to be recovered in the criminal court of Baltimore].

20. It shall be the duty of each inspector to cause to be marked [with a marking-iron] on the side of each hogshead of tobacco under his charge the warehouse, number and weight of said hogshead, and the net weight of tobacco contained therein, and to cause the warehouse number of such hogshead to be marked [with blacking] on each head thereof.

21. (a) Every inspector shall have uncased and break every hogshead of tobacco that may be delivered for inspection in not less than five different places for Maryland [and Ohio and not less than three different places for Kentucky and Virginia] tobacco and in as many more places as may be necessary to fully determine the contents of said hogshead, and if the inspector shall be of the opinion that such tobacco is sound, clean and in good order, then he shall select from each break as many bundles as will correctly represent the different qualities of tobacco contained in the break, and the bundles so selected shall be considered the sample of the hogshead; he shall also have the hogshead properly marked with its number, the year of inspection and the names legibly written of the owner on each head and bilge and shall have the tare and net weight marked [with iron] on the bilge as directed in Section 20.

(b) The tobacco graders or samplers shall be present when the hogshead is uncased and the sample taken, and they may proceed at once to grade the tobacco according to the grade established by them under authority of Section 11 of this Article, or may grade it in another part of the warehouse or warehouses. The same procedure shall be followed with respect to tobacco in warehouses other than the State Warehouses, and it shall be the duty of the person or persons taking samples from hogsheads in warehouses other than the State Warehouses to notify the graders or samplers of the time when and the place where samples will be taken. The State Board of Agriculture shall have the right and power to examine the work of the graders or samplers and to report the results of such examinations to the Tobacco Inspector.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any sales agency or its representative, to which tobacco has been consigned by the owner for sale, to make
