

gether with such other psychiatrists, psychologists, social service workers and sociologists, physicians, administrative officers, custodians, clerks and other officers and employees as may be provided in the Budget from time to time. Except as otherwise provided herein, the salaries of all officers and employees in the Institution shall be as provided in the Budget.

4. (c) The Board of Correction is authorized in its discretion to transfer into the Patuxent Institution any person sentenced to or confined in the Maryland Penitentiary, the Maryland House of Correction, the Maryland State Reformatory for Males or the Maryland State Reformatory for Women. Such transfer may be made at any time the Board, in its discretion, determines that it would improve discipline or aid in the safekeeping, treatment, training, employment or rehabilitation of such person. The Board shall issue its warrant for such transfer to the warden of the institution in which the said person is then confined, or to the custodial officer having him, or her, in custody, and such warrant shall be authority for the said transfer. The Chief of the Diagnostic Clinic shall accept for study any such person so transferred into the institution, and the clinic shall thereupon make such diagnosis of the condition of such person as to it shall seem necessary. If the clinic or the basis of such study shall determine for any reason that the said person is not a proper person to be given custody or treatment in the institution, it shall return the said person to the penal institution in which he, or she, was last confined, or to the custodial officer having him, or her, in custody, and the warden or other custodial officer shall accept the said person under the terms and conditions by which he, or she, was originally committed or transferred thereto. Provided, however, that the said person shall be returned to the penal institution or to the custodial officer with full credit for such time as he has already spent in the institution for defective delinquents or elsewhere within the custody of the Department of Correction including such allowances (or disallowances) relating to good behavior and/or work performed as the Board of Correction may determine under the provisions of Section 776 of Article 27 of the Code (1951 Edition as amended from time to time).

7. (a) (Examination.) Any such examination shall be made by at least three persons on behalf of the institution for defective delinquents, one of whom shall be a medical physician, one a psychiatrist, and one a psychologist. They shall assemble all pertinent information about the person to be examined, before proceeding therewith, including a complete statement of the crime for which he has been sentenced, the circumstances of such crime, the Court in which he was sentenced, the nature of the sentence, copies of any probation or other reports which may have been made about him, and reports as to his social, physical, mental and psychiatric condition and history. On the basis of all the assembled information, plus their own personal examination and study of the said person, they shall determine whether in their opinion, or in the opinion of a majority of them, the said person is or is not a defective delinquent. They shall state their findings in a written report addressed to the Court. If the substance of the report is that the said person is not a defective delinquent, he shall be [returned forthwith to] retained in the custody of the Department of Correction [on the original criminal conviction, and he shall begin or resume his period of confinement on
