

and other regularly incorporated and recognized veterans' associations, and for any other purposes which are for the civic welfare. Provided, however, that all such meetings held in the public school buildings shall at all times be open to the public. Provided, further, that in Anne Arundel County, the county school superintendent is hereby authorized to allow, in his discretion, the use of public school houses in Anne Arundel County for Sunday school purposes upon the usual application and conditions while the buildings in which the Sunday schools are usually conducted are being renovated, repaired or rebuilt. The use of the school houses is to be temporary only and to cease as soon as the buildings previously used are renovated, repaired or rebuilt. Provided, further, that in Montgomery County, the county board of education is hereby authorized to allow, in its discretion, the use of public school houses in Montgomery County for religious purposes, partisan political meetings and public elections upon the usual application and conditions. Provided, further, that, in Prince George's County, AND IN CALVERT AND HARFORD COUNTIES the County Superintendent of Schools and the President or other executive officer of the University of Maryland, any State College or any other institution of higher learning in Prince George's County, supported by contributions of public funds, shall, subject to application therefor and availability of the space requested without conflict with a scheduled school-student use or prior scheduled event for the time requested, allow the use of public school houses and such school, University, College or institutions buildings and auditorium facilities for religious purposes, public meetings, partisan political meetings, and for campaign programs in relation to and incident to a political campaign for nomination or election to public office of any candidate or candidates of any political party which polled 10% or more of the entire vote cast in the State in the last preceding general election; application for such use for partisan political meetings and political campaigning programs may be made by any candidate of such political party or the Chairman of the State or local central committee of such party. A reasonable charge for heating, lighting and janitor service for use of such facilities may be made.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1957.

Approved April 15, 1957.
