

of the Acts of 1949, amending the powers of the Board of Public COUNTY Commissioners of Harford County as to the fixing of daylight saving time.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 490A of the Code of Harford County (1942 Edition), being Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County," sub-title "Time," said section having been enacted by Chapter 24 of the Acts of 1949, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

490A. For the period of each year from two A. M. on the last Sunday in April until two A. M. of the last Sunday in September, the County Commissioners of Harford County are authorized and empowered to fix, by ordinance or resolution, the official time of said county at one hour in advance of the standard time of the seventy-fifth meridian, which advance in said standard time is commonly called "Eastern Standard Daylight Saving Time." Provided, however, that the Board of County Commissioners by ordinance or resolution passed not less than fifteen days before the change would become effective may extend the period during which the one hour variation from standard time shall be effective in any year or years. The extension may be to change the advance in time up to two A. M. on the last Sunday in March or back to two A. M. on the last Sunday in October or both such changes or any portion or portions of either. Any such extension may be provided only if other counties, municipalities or sections of the United States shall have made such a change and in the opinion of the Board of County Commissioners thereby have caused inconvenience and annoyance to the commercial, economic, industrial or social affairs of the residents of Harford County. If the County Commissioners so advance the official time of said county, all courts, public offices, legal and official proceedings, insofar as the same are subject to or under the control of said County Commissioners, shall be regulated thereby, and all time shown by the public clocks shall agree therewith.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 15, 1957.
