

the names of the persons selected as aforesaid from the respective districts shall be placed by the said Judge in the compartments of said box, respectively, which bear the numbers of the districts where the persons so selected respectively reside, and after so depositing said ballots, the said box shall be closed [and the said]. Each of the petit jury panels to serve during that particular term of court shall then be chosen in the following manner: the Judge shall [then] cause the Clerk, or one of his deputies, whom the said Judge shall designate (neither the one nor the other who may be so required to act, to be present at the writing, rolling or folding and depositing of said ballots into the box as herein directed) to appear then and there in the presence of the said Judge, the members of the Bar as aforesaid, and such other persons as may choose to be present, after well and thoroughly shaking the said box so that the ballots in the fifteen compartments thereof be well mixed, to draw from said box through such opening made by removing the sliding top thereof as will conveniently admit the hand, and exposing but one of said compartments at any one time, and without in any manner looking into said box, one by one, twenty-five of said ballots, and the names appearing on said ballots so withdrawn shall be duly recorded by said Judge or by the Clerk, in the presence of said Judge and under his direction, in the order in which they shall be drawn and [the said] each list so drawn shall constitute and be [the Petit Jury Panel] a petit jury panel for the term of said Court immediately following said drawing [, and]. In drawing the twenty-five names for each list aforesaid the said ballots shall be drawn in the following manner: two names from District No. 1, two names from District No. 2, two names from District No. 3, one name from District No. 4, one name from District No. 5, one name from District No. 6, one name from District No. 7, two names from District No. 8, two names from District No. 9, one name from District No. 10, two names from District No. 11, two names from District No. 12, two names from District No. 13, two names from District No. 14 and two names from District No. 15.

193. Any petit jury chosen for a particular term of Court shall serve for four weeks; provided, however, that the Circuit Court for Baltimore County may extend or reduce that term of service of any particular jury as in its discretion deems advisable. No more than three petit juries may serve simultaneously at any particular time.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1957.

Approved March 11, 1957.

CHAPTER 152

(Senate Bill 308)

AN ACT to ratify and confirm the actions of The County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County in expending certain sums of EXPLANATION: Italics indicate new matter added to existing law.

[Brackets] indicate matter stricken from existing law.

CAPITALS indicate amendments to bill.

~~Strike out~~ indicates matter stricken out of bill.