

ing for all money that may come into his hands in his official capacity; the expense of which shall be borne by the County and shall be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said County.

198. The Deputy County Treasurer shall perform such duties as the County Treasurer may prescribe and in the event of the absence, death, resignation, disability or disqualification of the County Treasurer, or in case the office of the County Treasurer shall for any cause become vacant, shall have and exercise all of the powers and duties vested by law in the County Treasurer.

The Assistant Deputy County Treasurer shall perform such duties as the County Treasurer may prescribe and in the event of the absence, death, resignation, disability or disqualification of the County Treasurer and Deputy County Treasurer, or in case the offices of the County Treasurer and Deputy County Treasurer shall for any cause become vacant, shall have and exercise all of the powers and duties vested by law in the County Treasurer.

199. The County Treasurer may appoint an attorney to serve at the pleasure of the County Treasurer.

200. The said attorney shall be a qualified voter of the County and a member in good standing of the Queen Anne's County Bar.

201. The said attorney shall receive such compensation and expense allowance as may be determined by the County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County.

202. The said attorney shall be the general legal advisor of the County Treasurer and shall represent the County Treasurer in all legal matters and in all suits, actions and proceedings of any kind to which the County Treasurer shall be a party before any Court, board, regulatory body, commission or governmental authority in the State of Maryland.

203. The said County Treasurer is required to enforce payment OF taxes by sale as hereinafter provided, of all property upon which taxes are in arrears, as soon as he is empowered to do so; and at the expiration of his term of or upon his retirement from office he is directed and required to forthwith surrender and deliver to his successor all books, papers and accounts whatsoever pertaining to said office and all funds including all cash in his hands and on deposit as Treasurer, whether from taxes, proceeds of sale of property of delinquent taxpayers, or from any other source; and in all cases where a Treasurer has taken steps for the enforcement of the payment of said taxes, and shall die before the collection of said taxes, or before said proceedings are completed, his successor is empowered and required to continue and complete said proceedings for the enforcement of the payment of said taxes, and to collect the same; and he is hereby clothed with all the power and authority in law had by the deceased treasurer during his term of office for that purpose.

204. It shall be his duty to deposit at least once a week in any of the banks in Queen Anne's County all State and County taxes and all other State and County funds and/or moneys received or