

Commissioners", sub-heading "Miscellaneous", as enacted by Chapter 153 of the Acts of 1955, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

250A. The County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall have full power to contract with property owners for the purchase of land, the use of which may be required in connection with the opening of any new road, street, alley or sidewalk, for the construction or repair of any bridge, the relocation, straightening or widening of any road, street or alley or sidewalk, the proper drainage of any such road, street, alley or sidewalk. If the County Commissioners shall be unable for any reason to agree with the owner or owners of any such land, or the owner or owners of the buildings or improvements thereon, the use of which is required for the opening of any new road, street, alley or sidewalk, for the construction or repair of any bridge, for the relocating, straightening or widening of any road, street, alley or sidewalk, the proper drainage thereof, then the County Commissioners may proceed to condemn the same for the use of the County under the provisions of Article 33A (Eminent Domain) of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), as amended from time to time. However, the County Commissioners shall not be required to accept the award or Judgment rendered in any proceeding under said statute, but they may [, with the consent of the defendant,] abandon the said proceeding for eminent domain upon payment of the costs thereof including reasonable attorneys fees.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1957.

Approved March 25, 1957.
