CHAPTER 407

(Senate Bill 433)

AN ACT to change the designation of Article 100 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, said Article now being under the title "Work—Hours of, in Factories", and being changed so as henceforth to be under the title "Work, Labor and Employment".

WHEREAS, Article 100 of the Annotated Code of Maryland is under the designation "Work—Hours of, in Factories"; and

WHEREAS, This title does not adequately explain or conveniently describe the contents of Article 100 as it contains many provisions for work, labor and employment, including the labor conditions of State employees, which have no concern with factory employment; and

WHEREAS, It is desirable to change the designation of this Article in order that it may have a more accurate title; now therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the designation of Article 100 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, said Article now being under the title "Work—Hours of, in Factories", be and the same is hereby changed so that said title henceforth will be "Work, Labor and Employment".

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That wherever in the laws, resolutions, ordinances, regulations or rules of any department, bureau, board, commission or other agency of this State or of any political sub-division thereof, there appears a reference to Article 100 of said Code, it shall henceforth be deemed and taken to be to Article 100 under the new title herein designated, it being the legislative intent of the General Assembly to change the name of Article 100 but to make no other change in the substance or application thereof.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1957.

Approved March 28, 1957.
