

Any two members of the Board of Appeals shall constitute a quorum. No vacancy shall impair the right of the remaining members to exercise the powers conferred upon the Board of Appeals under the provisions of this Article.

11. (e) ADVISORY COUNCILS

The Governor shall appoint a State Advisory Council and the [Board] Executive Director shall appoint local advisory councils, composed in each case of an equal number of employer representatives and employee representatives who may be fairly regarded as representative because of their vocation, employment, or affiliations, and of such members representing the general public as the [Board] Executive Director may designate. Such councils shall aid the [Board] Executive Director in formulating policies and discussing problems related to the administration of this article and in assuring impartiality and freedom from political influence in the solution of such problems. Such advisory councils as are appointed by the Executive Director shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for any necessary expenses. Such advisory councils as are appointed by the Governor shall receive a per diem allowance of thirty dollars ($30.00) for each day not to exceed $1,000 per year in which the council is in session, plus hotel and necessary travel expenses. As the terms of the present members of the State advisory council terminate, the Governor shall appoint a person to a term of six years. Any vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired portion of the term. Nothing in this sub-section, however, shall be construed to prohibit the reappointment to the State advisory council of any person who has already served thereon. THE INDEFINITE TERMS OF THE MEMBERS OF THE STATE ADVISORY COUNCIL WHO ARE IN OFFICE ON JUNE 1, 1953, SHALL BE TERMINATED AS OF THAT TIME. [Immediately thereafter and as of June 1, 1953, the Governor shall appoint to the State advisory council all members thereof who held such positions immediately prior to June 1, 1953. In making such reappointments, the Governor shall designate them, respectively, for periods ranging from one to six years if there are then six members of the State advisory council. If there are fewer than six members of the State advisory council eligible for reappointment under the provisions of this sub-section, the Governor shall appoint them for respective terms of from one year to a number of years equal to the number of persons so to be appointed. Thereafter, as each such stated term expires, the Governor shall appoint a person to a new term of six years. Nothing in this sub-section shall be construed to prohibit the reappointment to the State advisory council of any person who has already served thereon.]

14. (c) JUDICIAL REVIEW

Within twenty days after the entry of any order of the Board of Appeals as provided in sub-section (a) or (b) OF this section, or as provided in Section 7. (d) of this Act, any aggrieved employer may secure a judicial review of the action of the Board of Appeals by appeal to the superior court of Baltimore City, or to the Circuit Court of the County in which the employer does business, as the case may be, in which appeal the Board of Appeals shall be made a defendant. In such appeal, a petition, which need not be verified but which shall state the grounds upon which a review is sought, shall be served
