

by law and shall not be subject to any limitations now existing or hereafter imposed upon the taxing power of the Board of County Commissioners of Caroline County, and any law conflicting with the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed, for the purposes of this Act to the extent of such inconsistency.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, or other certificates of indebtedness authorized by this Act, except as in this Act otherwise provided, shall be used exclusively for the specific purposes for which same have been issued, and for no other purposes whatsoever, except that all expenses incurred in the sale and delivery of the bonds shall be payable from said funds.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds from the sale of said bonds and all funds received by participating in the "Caroline County General Public School Construction Loan of 1957-1960" or other funds received from the State or Federal Government shall be paid to the County Treasurer and shall be set apart by him in an account or accounts to the credit of the "Caroline County General Public School Construction Loan of 1957-1960", and shall be disbursed by him only for the purposes herein authorized, and upon the joint order of the Board of County Commissioners of Caroline County and the Board of Education of Caroline County, provided that any accrued interest received from the sale of said bonds shall be applied to the payment of the first maturing interest on said bonds.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the Board of Education of Caroline County, with the joint approval of the Board of County Commissioners of Caroline County, is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into all contracts (including architects, contractors and builders, equipment dealers, or others) necessary in the execution and completion of the projects for which said bonds are sold, or other certificates of indebtedness issued and to do all acts or things necessary to carry out the powers conferred by this section from time to time.

An advisory committee to the Board of Education composed of the County Commissioners and such other citizens (not to exceed 8) as the Board of Education and County Commissioners see fit to name shall be established. This committee shall be consulted on problems related to the building program outlined above and shall be advisory only and shall not bind said Boards in any action which they shall take.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1957.
