

ment or promotion in the Police Force except for position as Inspectors of Police, Police Surgeons, the Secretary of the Police Commissioner [and], his Assistants, and the Secretary to the Chief Inspector. The examinations shall be public and of such character as to test fairly the relative capacity and fitness of the candidates to discharge the duties of the positions for which they are seeking to qualify. The Examining Authority shall prepare graded lists of qualified candidates determined from the written examinations and the service records and ratings of the Chief Personnel Officer for those candidates who have achieved at least the minimum passing grade on the written examination, and the mark to be given each such qualified candidate shall be determined by giving equal weight to [the] such result of the written examination and to the service record or rating. If any candidate does not achieve the minimum passing grade on the written examination fixed by the Examining Authority, his name shall not appear on the graded list for such appointment or promotion. Any list supplied to the Police Commissioner shall remain in force for one year thereafter unless sooner exhausted by appointments or promotions. Persons whose names remain on the list after its expiration shall be eligible for a subsequent list upon re-examination. The graded lists shall at all times be open to the inspection of the public, and the examination papers and service records or ratings shall be open to inspection of the respective members of the Department or applicants for appointment.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1957.

Approved April 10, 1957.
