

through appropriations from the signatory bodies and the United States, in the manner prescribed by the laws of the several signatory bodies and of the United States, and in amounts [.] as follows:

The prorata contribution shall be based on such factors as population [;], the amount of industrial and domestic pollution; and a flat service charge [;], as shall be determined from time to time by the Commission, subject, however, to the approval, ratification and appropriation of such contribution by the several signatory bodies. [And, further provided, that the total of such sums from all signatory bodies shall not exceed a total of thirty thousand dollars, ($30,000) per annum.]

ARTICLE [IV] V.

Pursuant to the aims and purposes of this compact, the signatory bodies mutually agree:

1. Faithful co-operation in the abatement of existing pollution and the prevention of future pollution in the streams of the Conservancy District and in the planning for the utilization, conservation and development of the water and associated land resources thereof.

2. The enactment of adequate and, insofar as is practicable, uniform legislation for the abatement and control of [such] pollution and control and use of such streams.

3. The appropriation of [biannual] biennial sums on the proportionate basis as set forth in Article [III] IV.

ARTICLE [V] VI.

This compact shall become effective immediately after it shall have been ratified by the majority of the legislatures of the states of Maryland and West Virginia, the commonwealths of Pennsylvania and Virginia, and by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and approved by the Congress of the United States; provided, however, that this compact shall not be effective as to any signatory body until ratified thereby.

ARTICLE [VI] VII.

Any signatory body may by legislative [action] act, after one year's notice to the Commission, withdraw from this compact.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall become effective upon the adoption of substantially similar amendments to the Interstate Compact by each of the signatory States to the Compact, and upon the approval of the amendments to the Compact by the Congress of the United States.

Approved March 2, 1960.
