31. The party at whose expense personal property must be moved after June 1, 1959, because the building wherein it is located has been or is about to be taken under condemnation proceedings or acquired by negotiation in lieu thereof shall be entitled to receive from the condemnor reasonable moving costs as follows:

In the case of a residence, such costs shall not exceed $200 and in the case of a commercial or industrial establishment, shall not exceed $2500. Reasonable moving costs are defined as the actual costs of moving the personal property or equipment of such party from one location to another within a reasonable distance. If the condemnor and such party are unable to agree as to the amount of said moving costs, the matter shall be determined by a judge of the Circuit Court of the county (or the Superior Court of Baltimore City) in which the condemnation proceedings have been filed, or if there be no such proceedings, in that jurisdiction in which the building or any part thereof is located, upon petition filed by either the condemnor or condemnee.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved April 28, 1959.
