

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved April 28, 1959.

---

CHAPTER 724

(House Bill 862)

AN ACT to add twelve new sections to Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title, "Charles County", sub-title "County Commissioners", said new sections to follow immediately after Section 84 of said Article, to be designated Sections 84A to 84L, inclusive, and to authorize the County Commissioners of Charles County to promote the public welfare through the provisions of self-liquidating projects, including public service projects, other than those authorized by any other law or electric, gas or railroad utilities, and including manufacturing and industrial plants which will increase employment; empowering the County to acquire and construct any such projects that will be self-liquidating and to charge rents, fees or tolls for the use thereof; empowerng said County to issue revenue bonds to finance any such projects, such bonds and the interest thereon to be payable solely from such rents, fees or tolls and not to constitute, under any circumstances, a pledge of the faith, credit and taxing power of the County or of the State of Maryland; conferring on said County necessary detailed powers with respect to the acquisition and construction of said projects and with respect to the issue, sale and security for the payment of said revenue bonds, including authority to adopt appropriate resolutions and execute appropriate indentures of trust prescribing the rights and remedies of bondholders and the rights and obligations of the County with reference thereto and with reference to any such project; declaring any such project to be for the public use and benefit and exempting the same as well as the principal and interest of any such revenue bonds from State, county and municipal taxation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That twelve new sections be and the same are hereby added to Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Charles County", sub-title "County Commissioners", said new sections to follow immediately after Section 84 of said Article and to be designated Sections 84A to 84L, inclusive and to read as follows:

84A. That for the purpose of promoting the public health, welfare and safety of the residents of Charles County through the promotion and development of commerce and industry in said County and the creation of employment for said residents, the following power and authority is hereby conferred on the County Commissioners of EXPLANATION: Italics indicate new matter added to existing law.

[Brackets] indicate matter stricken from existing law.

CAPITALS indicate amendments to bill.

~~Strike out~~ indicates matter stricken out of bill.