

of, or if an address shall have been filed as provided in Section 257 of the order, action or refusal to act of the Department completed of this Article. Such appeal shall be taken within thirty days from the date appealed to the Maryland Tax Court as provided in Section 229 of this Article, reducing or abating any assessment, any tax, or in increasing to classify, any property or computing assesses, classifying or refusing to reassessing or refusing to refuse assessing or refusing to assess or in reassessing by it in the Department with respect to ordinary taxes assessed by it in State, claiming to be aggrieved because of any final action taken by the State, or in assesses of any taxpayer, or the Attorney General on behalf of the assessors of any county, any taxpayer, any city, the County Commissioners of Maryland and Taxes (Ordinary Tax Court). Appeals to 258.

(Ordinary Taxes Assessable by the Department; Appeals to Maryland and Taxes Assessable by the Department in order to appeal, as provided in Sections 259 and 260. nothing herein contained shall require any person to file such information, or mail postage prepaid, to the addressee as aforesaid; but attorney, or mail postage prepaid, to such party or his agent or order in said matter shall be delivered to such party or his agent a copy of any taining to said proceeding may be sent, and thereafter a copy of any or of the address of his agent or attorney to whom all notices per any party in interest may file information in writing of his address of overvaluation or undervaluation, or that the assessment is unequal in that it has been made at a higher proportion of value than other property of the same class, or said petition may assign any other errors which may exist in the particular case for which an appeal is allowed, and on account of which petitioner claims to be injured.

(b) A petition of appeal provided for by Sub-section (a) of this section shall set forth that the assessment or classification is illegal, specifying the ground of alleged illegality, or is erroneous by reason of overvaluation or undervaluation, or undervaluation, or that the assessment is set aside for a hearing before the Commissioner of Assessments before the State Department of Assessments and Taxation; In any proceeding before the Department and Taxes (Ordinary Tax Court); In any proceeding before the Department and Taxes Assessable by the Department in order to appeal, as provided in Sections 259 and 260. (Proceedings before the State Department of Assessments and Taxation; Notices.)

for the filing of a demand for a hearing by Section 255 of this Article. No appeal shall be taken within thirty days from the date of mailing of notice of assessment authority [Appeal] appealed from within the time limited such action shall be filed by the appellant with the final classification an existing assessment unless application in writing for reduction of this section from a failure or refusal to abate, reduce, or under this section on behalf of a taxpayer shall be allowed assessments. No appeal on otherwise, to the supervisor of its action, in writing, by mail or otherwise, to the supervisor of assessments] final assessing authority [Send] sends notice of [their] commissioners] final assessing authority [Send] sends notice of [their] commissioners] if the appeal is a supervisor of assessments so given or (c) if the final assessing authority to the date [County Tax Court] shall be taken within thirty days from the date of mailing such a hearing as in Section 255 provided, then by the person giving such address within thirty days from the date of mailing of the notice of the action by the [County Tax Court] final assessing authority appealed from by any person or corporation demanding the [County Commissioners or the Appeal Tax Court] final assessing authority appealed from by any person or the Appeal Tax Court of the [County Commissioners or the Appeal Tax Court] final assessing authority appealed of, or (b) if an address shall have been filed within thirty days after the date of the action or failure or refusal within thirty days from the entry thereof. [With said Commissioners] shall be taken either (a) appeal [To the State Tax Commission] shall be taken either (a) to act complained of, or (b) if an address shall have been filed within thirty days after the date of the action or failure or refusal within thirty days from the entry thereof. [With said Commissioners] shall be taken either (a) to the [State Tax Commission] said Court shall hear and determine all such appeals within as provided in Section 229 in this Article, and [The State Tax Commission] to the [State Tax Commission] Maryland Tax Court therefrom.]