

State Tax Commission by the provisions of this Article shall from and after July 1, 1959, be vested in and imposed upon the State Department of Assessments and Taxation.

1. In General

Article 23

(i) All powers, rights and duties vested in or imposed upon the State Tax Commission by the provisions of this Article such as sections of Sections 213 to 219, inclusive, of this Article.
monetary paid in excess of the amount payable under such determination, shall be refunded with interest at the rate of six per cent. (6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ) per annum from the date of payment to the date of refund. The sources of refund shall be specified in the applicable provisions of Sections 213 to 219, inclusive, of this Article.

261. (Refunds.) Upon final determination of any appeal, any monetary paid in excess of the amount payable under such determination or properly stay or in any manner affect the collection or enforcement of the assessment, tax levy, or classification or household property, no appeal shall stay or in any manner affect the assessment or mailing (whichever is earlier) of any notice of delinquency or mailing (whichever is earlier) of any notice of appeal to Maryland Tax Court. Within thirty days after the date of mailing or mailing (whichever is earlier) of any notice of appeal to Maryland Tax Court, as provided in Section 229 of this section, the person against whom such assessment is made may apply to the Department for an additional assessment under Sub-section (b) of this section, unless the taxpayer shall file with the agency responsible for collection thereof a bond to the State of Maryland, with corporation surety to be approved by the Department, conditioned upon the payment of such assessment and all interest accruing thereon until paid.

260. (Appeal Bonds.) Except as to ordinary taxes on real or personal property, no appeal shall stay or in any manner affect the
or household property, unless the taxpayer is liable for any notice of appeal to Maryland Tax Court, as provided in Section 229 of this section, the person against whom such assessment is made may
this section, unless the taxpayer shall file with the agency
responsible for collection thereof a bond to the State of Maryland,
with corporation surety to be approved by the Department, conditioned
on until paid.

(c) (Appeal to Maryland Tax Court.) Within thirty days after the date of mailing or mailing (whichever is earlier) of any notice
this section, the person against whom such assessment is made may
this section, unless the taxpayer shall file with the agency
responsible for collection thereof a bond to the State of Maryland,
with corporation surety to be approved by the Department, conditioned
on until paid.

(b) (Application for Revision.) Within thirty days after the date of delinquency or mailing (whichever is earlier) of any notice of assessment, the person against whom such assessment is made may apply in writing to the Department for revision or abatement thereof.
Thereupon the Department shall promptly either (1) affirm, abate or modify such assessment, or (2) name a date, after reasonable notice to the applicant, for an informal hearing of the matter. After such hearing, the Department shall, with reasonable promptness, take such action on the application as it shall deem proper, including the levying of an additional assessment for any additional taxes found to be due by the applicant up to the date of application. Such application and final action thereon by the Department, as herein provided, shall be prerequisite to any appeal.

259. (Taxes, etc., Assessable by the Department other than Ordinary Taxes.) (a) (Notices.) The Department shall promptly notify every person of every action taken by it with respect to any assessment against such person for taxes (including license fees or charges) assessable by the Department other than ordinary taxes. Such notice shall be delivered to the party or his agent, or attorney, or mailled, postage prepaid, in accordance with the information filed under Section 257 of this Article, or if not so filed, to such person's last known address.
