

Such a sum shall be paid to the municipal corporations of the county in lieu of a tax differential on the County tax rate for owners of property situated within corporate limits of municipal corporations and in recognition of the service contributions made by the several municipal corporations to the good government and service needs of the county.

The sum of money paid over by the Board of County Commissioners shall be distributed to the several municipal corporations in accordance with the following procedure:

- (a) Determine the dollar amount accruing to all municipalities from a $.20 uniform levy per $100 of total municipal assessable base.*
- (b) Determine each municipal corporation's percentage of total municipal expenditures for public safety, highways, and recreation as reported in the annual reports of the State Fiscal Research Bureau.*
- (c) Determine each municipal corporation's share of total accrual (sub paragraph (a)) by applying percentage result obtained in sub paragraph (b).*

For purposes of determining the amount of distribution, the assessable real property within the corporate limits of the several municipal corporations as of June, 1957, shall be used for the distribution to be made in 1960. Thereafter, the assessable base of 1958 shall be used for distribution determination in 1961; the assessable base of 1959 shall be used for 1962 and in a similar manner for the years thereafter.
