

67A.

(a) The State Superintendent of Schools shall require the superintendent of schools of every county and Baltimore City to conduct, at least once during every 60 days of the school year at every public school in the counties or Baltimore City under the jurisdiction of the superintendent thereof, a fire drill. In the counties the drill will be conducted under the supervision of an officer, designated by the county superintendent, of a municipal fire department if the school is located within any incorporated municipality, or, if the school is not located within any incorporated municipality, by an officer, designated by the county superintendent, of a county fire department, if any, or by an officer, designated by the county superintendent, of a volunteer fire company located in the vicinity of the school. In Baltimore City the drill will be conducted by an officer, designated by the city superintendent, of the Baltimore City Fire Department. SUCH DRILLS SHALL BE CONDUCTED UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF AN OFFICER OF A FIRE DEPARTMENT OR COMPANY AFFORDING FIRE PROTECTION TO THE SCHOOL.

(b) At the intervals, and by the persons prescribed above, an inspection of all schools for fire safety must be conducted. A report of each inspection containing the findings and any recommendations for fire safety will be made to the county or city superintendent, with a copy to the State Fire Marshal.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved May 5, 1959.
