

title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Birds, Game and Inland Water Fish", sub-heading "Waterfowl and Migratory Birds", specifying certain waters in Baltimore County in which no booby, brush or stake blind shall be licensed or erected.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 156(b) of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Birds, Game and Inland Water Fish", sub-heading "Waterfowl and Migratory Birds", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(b) Tributaries of Potomac River in Charles County and waters of Baltimore County.—In the tributaries of the Potomac River in Charles County and on the waters of Baltimore County said blinds shall not be less than 250 yards apart measured in a straight line nor exceed a greater distance than 150 yards from the natural shore from which same may be erected. Provided that on the tributaries of the Potomac River in Charles County no blind shall be placed nearer than 125 yards of any property owned or leased by him and the adjoining property bordering on said waters, unless with the consent of the adjoining landowners, same being for the purpose of allowing each landowner or lessee bordering on the tributaries of the Potomac River in Charles County permission to avail himself of the privilege of setting, erecting or maintaining a booby, brush or stake blind in front of his property provided he is the owner, lessee or licensee of the amount of shore frontage as required by law. However, the 250 yards as provided in Section 161 shall not apply to the above sections.

In Baltimore County, no booby, brush or stake blind shall be licensed or erected in the waters of Middle River and its tributaries, westerly or inshore from a straight line drawn from the tip of Wilson Point in a southwesterly direction to the northwest corner of Cape May Beach.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved March 24, 1959.
