

Motor Vehicles in accordance with such agreed plan, and, together therewith, shall make remittance of all revenues due the State of Maryland from traffic violation fines and costs to the Department of Motor Vehicles. The Department of Finance of Montgomery County shall regularly audit the accounts and records of said clerks and shall furnish the Department of Motor Vehicles and the State Comptroller regularly a certificate attesting to the fact that an audit verification of traffic violation fines and costs imposed in the People's Court of Montgomery County has been made, and that all fines and costs due the State of Maryland have been remitted to the Department of Motor Vehicles. [he] Each clerk shall have custody of all monies paid into the court for any purpose and shall deposit such monies promptly in an account in his name in Montgomery County; each clerk shall prepare, sign and deliver with appropriate remittances to county and State officials such reports of fines, forfeitures and costs as are required of trial magistrates by law; each clerk shall report the funds in his custody regardless of which judge or judges may from time to time preside in the court; the clerks shall perform such other duties as shall be properly assigned to them by the judges of the People's Court, and they shall receive such salary as shall be fixed by the county council of said county in equal monthly installments; the said clerks before entering upon their duties shall each give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) with corporate sureties satisfactory to said county council, the premium of said bonds to be paid by the county council of Montgomery County. The county council for Montgomery County shall provide such additional clerical help as may be necessary to carry out the administrative work of said courts at salaries to be fixed by said county council for Montgomery County.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved March 24, 1959.
