CHAPTER 30

(Senate Bill 104)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 83 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Harford County (1957 Edition, being Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland) title "Assessments", sub-title "Building Permits Required", increasing the minimum value of building to be constructed when permit is required; ~~setting~~ PERMITTING reasonable fee for permit; and correcting an error of omission by adding the word "Court" after the word Circuit.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 83 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Harford County (1957 Edition, being Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland), title "Assessments", sub-title "Building Permits Required", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

83.

Hereafter no building or structure of any kind whatsoever exceeding in value [One Hundred] ~~Two~~ ONE Hundred and Fifty Dollars shall be erected or constructed in Harford County, without a permit in writing, obtained from the office of the County Commissioners of Harford County. Any contractor or owner who is about to erect or construct any new building or structure, or who is about to construct any addition to any existing building, in said County, under the provisions of this section, must first apply, verbally or in writing to the office of the said Commissioners, giving a general description of the said proposed building or addition and the location, together with the contemplated value thereof, and obtain said permit, for which [no] a reasonable fee shall MAY be charged by said Commissioners. Any person or corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a magistrate or the Circuit Court for Harford County, shall be fined not more than Twenty-five Dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved February 16, 1959.
