

(b) Forfeiture for dismissal for moral turpitude. Whenever any classified employee shall be dismissed from the classified service for any cause involving moral turpitude, such employee shall forfeit all unused vacation time and compensation for all unused vacation leave. Whenever the services of any classified employee shall be terminated within six (6) months from the date of his original appointment to the classified service, such employee shall not be entitled to any [unused] vacation leave or compensation for [unused] vacation leave. Subject to the exceptions hereinbefore set forth, every classified employee, upon the termination of his service as a classified employee, shall be entitled to receive a sum equivalent to one-fourteenth of his established biweekly amount of compensation at the time his employment terminates, multiplied by the number of days of his unused vacation leave.

(f) Subject to the above provisions of this section, all credits to an employee's pay, including credits for earned but unused annual vacation leave, and all deductions from an employee's pay, including deductions for leave without pay at any time, shall be based pro-rata upon the number of working days included in the period for which the employee is paid his established biweekly compensation; and no deductions shall be made for any days on which such employee is entitled to be absent from work with pay.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1959.

Approved April 3, 1959.
