

horse is cloaked with the Crossland and the Calvert arms described in sub-sections (a) and (b) of this section. In the foreground flowers and grass are pictured. Encircling the seal is an inscription, "Cecilius Absolutus Dominus Terrae Mariae et Avaloniae Baro de Baltimore." Translated from the Latin this is said to mean, "Cecilius Absolute Lord of Maryland and Avalon, Baron of Baltimore." Avalon was the name of Lord Baltimore's grant in Newfoundland, where there was a short-lived settlement prior to the landing at St. Mary's.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved April 8, 1959.

CHAPTER 397

(Senate Bill 550)

AN ACT to authorize the creation of a State debt in the aggregate amount of Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000), for the purpose of aiding in the construction of a science laboratory building on the campus of Loyola College in Baltimore, subject to the requirements that the said college on or before January 1, 1961, shall have obtained elsewhere at least an equal and matching sum for the same purposes.

WHEREAS, Loyola College of Baltimore, Maryland, is one of the oldest institutions of higher learning in the State with a long and distinguished history dating from 1852; and

WHEREAS, Loyola College urgently needs an adequate and enlarged science building to provide for the needs of its students; and

WHEREAS, the present welfare and protection of our country and State demand a renewed and expanded interest in scientific education; and

WHEREAS, Loyola College has received no prior State assistance, as have other private educational institutions of this State; and

WHEREAS, it is considered that State-aid to private institutions, which relieve the burden on State institutions, is an economical means of fulfilling the State's obligation to provide higher education, now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Board of Public Works is hereby authorized and directed to issue a State loan to be known as the "Loyola College Loan of 1959", in the aggregate sum of Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000).
