

other purpose, and no trees shall be planted or removed or obstructions placed thereon without the written permit of the County Roads Board or its duly authorized agent, and then only in accordance with the regulations of the Board and the work shall be done under the supervision of the Board, and the entire expense of replacing the county road in as good condition as before shall be paid by the person to whom the permit was given or by whom the work was done, and the County Roads Board may in its discretion, prior to the issuance of the required permit, require the filing of a bond in such sum as they, in their discretion, may deem sufficient to insure the satisfactory completion of the work. Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor, and the person or corporation so violating shall be liable to prosecution at the instance of the Board or at the instance of any taxpayer, and upon conviction before any trial magistrate shall be fined an amount of not more than $100.00 for such offense.

380. Any person moving a motor vehicle over a county road, which is either oversize or overweight as defined by Article 66½, Section 81, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition) shall first obtain a permit to be issued by the County Roads Board. The permit shall specify the route to be followed, the hour and date on which the passage is to be effected, and the maximum size and weight. Any person moving a motor vehicle over a county road which is either oversize or overweight as hereinabove set forth, without first obtaining a permit from the County Roads Board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $100.00.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any clause, sentence, part or parts of this Act, or of any section thereof shall be held unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this Act or of any section thereof. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this Act or any section thereof, if it had known such clause, sentence, part or parts or any section thereof should be declared unconstitutional.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved April 8, 1959.
