

Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Insurance", sub-title "Life, Accident and Health Insurance", said new section to follow immediately after Section 201 and to be known as Section 201A and to read as follows:

201A. Any minor domiciled in this State who has attained the age of eighteen years shall be deemed competent to receive and to give full acquittance and discharge for a payment or payments in an aggregate amount not exceeding two thousand dollars in any one year, made by any insurer as benefits payable to such minor in compliance with the provisions of an insurance policy, annuity contract or settlement agreement, if such policy, contract or agreement specifically provides for payment direct to such minor; provided that prior to such payment the company has not received written notice of the appointment of a duly qualified guardian of the property of such minor. No such minor shall be deemed competent to alienate the right to, or to anticipate, such payments. Such minor shall not by reason of minority be entitled to rescind, avoid, or repudiate any exercise of the right or privilege conferred by this Section, nor shall this Section be deemed to affect the rights of minors under Section 201 of this Article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved April 8, 1959.
