

- (b) bring suit upon the bonds;
- (c) by action or suit in equity, require the Authority to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;
- (d) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the bondholders;
- (e) by notice in writing to the Authority, declare all bonds due and payable, and if all defaults be made good, then with the consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum (25%) (or such other percentage as may be specified in any deed of trust, indenture or other agreement aforesaid) of the principal amount of the bonds then outstanding, to annul such declaration and its consequences.

Any trustee, whether appointed as aforesaid or acting under a deed of trust, indenture or other agreement and whether or not all bonds have been declared due and payable, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver, who may (to the same extent that the Authority itself could so do) enter and take possession of the facilities of the Authority, or any parts thereof, the tolls, revenues, rentals or receipts from which are or may be applicable to the payment of the bonds so in default, and operate and maintain the same, and collect and receive all rentals and other revenues thereafter arising therefrom in the same manner as the Authority might do, and shall deposit all such moneys in a separate account, and apply the same in such manner as the court shall direct. In any suit, action or proceeding by the trustees, the fees, counsel fees, and expenses of the trustee and of the receiver, if any, and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court, shall be a first charge on any revenues and receipts derived from the facilities of the Authority, the revenues or receipts from which are or may be applicable to the payment of the bonds so in default. Said trustee shall, in addition to the foregoing, have and possess all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth herein or incident to the general representation of the bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

In addition to all other rights and all other remedies, any holder of bonds of the Authority shall have the right by mandamus or other suit, action, or proceeding at law or in equity to enforce his rights against the Authority, including the right to require the Authority to collect tolls, fees, rentals and other charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to or pledge of such tolls, fees, rentals, or other charges, or income, revenues and receipts, and to require the Authority to carry out any of its covenants and agreements with the bondholders, and to perform its and their duties under this Act; provided, however, that nothing in this section or any other section of this Act shall authorize any receiver appointed pursuant to this Act for the purpose of operating and maintaining any project or projects of the Authority, to sell, assign, mortgage or otherwise dispose of, any of the assets of whatever kind and character belonging to the Authority [.] , except where such sale, assignment or mortgage is expressly permitted by the revenue bonds of that particular project. It is the intention of this Act to limit the powers of such receiver to the operation and maintenance of the facilities of the Authority as the court shall direct, and no holder of bonds of the Authority, nor any trustee, shall ever have the right in any suit, action or proceedings at law or in equity to compel a receiver, nor shall any
