

ies, and if it shall appear to the court that such person is the proper person to receive such monies and is the person whom the Probation Department was not able to identify or locate, the court by order shall direct the county to repay said monies to such person, without interest.

(g) Upon receiving any such order, the county shall provide for the repayment of such monies, from its general funds. No such order for repayment may be directed to the said county after the expiration of such further three-year period.

(h) The provisions of this section shall apply to all such monies now in the hands of the Probation Department prior to June 1, 1959, as well as such monies received subsequent thereto.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved February 16, 1959.
