

Appeal from the decision of the Commissioner resulting in revocation or suspension of the employment agent's license shall be through due process of law.

167. No employment agent doing business in this State, or any person employed by or acting as agent for any such employment agent, shall

(1) In any manner or by any means whatsoever make any false statement or false representation to any person seeking employment, knowing the same to be false, in regard to any employment, work or situation, its nature, location, or duration, the wages or salary attached thereto or the circumstances surrounding the said employment, work or situation, or,

(2) Give to any employer or prospective employer any sum of money or thing of value for the purpose of inducing the employment of any applicant and for the creation of any vacancy, or,

(3) Collect in advance from any applicant for employment any payment for service to be rendered to such applicant in obtaining employment except that an employment agent engaged in the business of securing positions for teachers may charge each applicant a registration fee of not more than two ($2.00) dollars [.] , or,

(4) Send applicants to emigrant agents when engaged in procuring job applicants as domestic or household employees for such emigrant agents without having a bona fide order for employment. Such bona fide order shall include the following information:

(a) Name and address of prospective employer, or employers.

(b) Description of duties of job.

(c) Amount of salary to be paid.

(d) Live on or off premises of prospective employer.

The emigrant agent shall also append to the bona fide order, or orders, the following information:

"I, or we, (in case of partnership or corporation) hereby certify that I, or we, know the above prospective employer, or employers, and know them to be a person, or persons, of good moral character".

The aforesaid bona fide order and certification must be signed by the emigrant agent and duly notarized, or,

(5) Deal with an emigrant agent or send applicants to an emigrant agent without first securing a photostatic copy of license issued to such emigrant agent by the licensing authority issuing such license in the state where such emigrant is licensed. Such photostatic copy shall be displayed in a prominent place and in full view of all applicants seeking employment.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 28, 1959.
