

shall claim to be within the authority or beyond the scope of this sub-title. If such investigation discloses the person investigated is violating the provisions of this sub-title, the Commissioner may report such violation to the Governor of this State, who may direct the Attorney General to institute a proper proceeding for the prosecution of such violation.

(c) For the purposes of this section the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative shall have and be given free access to the offices and places of business, files, safes, and vaults of all such persons, and shall have authority to require the attendance of any person, his agent or sub-agent or other parties and to examine him or them under oath relative to such business.

220. (Right of Review.) Any person, firm, association, partnership or corporation aggrieved by any decision or finding of the Commissioner under this sub-title shall have a right of appeal to Circuit Court of the County or to the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, depending upon the jurisdiction in which the aggrieved party resides.

221. (Penalty.) Any person, firm, association, partnership or corporation that violates the provisions of this sub-title shall be fined not less than $500.00 nor more than $1,000.00 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, in the discretion of the Court; the Attorney General, or the State's Attorney of the County or City in which the violation occurs, shall file a complaint in the Criminal Court of that jurisdiction in connection with any such violations.

222. (Short Title.) This sub-title shall be known and may be cited as the "Maryland Currency Exchange Law."

223. (Severability.) The provisions of this sub-title are severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional, the decision of the Court shall not affect any of the remaining provisions of this sub-title. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this sub-title would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1959.

Approved April 28, 1959.
