

the date of issue of the bonds offered, the total aggregate par amount thereof, the interest payable thereon, or the method of determining the same, generally the purpose to which the proceeds thereof will be devoted, and the general form thereof, including a statement whether said bonds will be redeemable, will be in coupon or registered form, and whether the same will be registerable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. Each such notice of sale shall also contain a brief summary of the current financial condition of the County or shall indicate where such a statement may be obtained and, finally, shall reserve unto the Board of County Commissioners the right to reject any or all bids received. In lieu of publishing said entire notice of sale, the Board of County Commissioners may, if it shall so elect in said resolution, publish a brief summary of said notice which summary need not contain all the information required by law to be contained in said notice but which shall state where interested parties may obtain a complete copy thereof.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the bonds hereby authorized shall constitute, and they shall so recite, an irrevocable pledge of the full faith and credit and unlimited taxing power of the County to the payment of the maturing principal and interest of such bonds as and when the same respectively mature. In each and every fiscal year that any of said bonds are outstanding, the County shall levy or cause to be levied ad valorem taxes upon all the assessable property within the corporate limits of the County in rate and amount sufficient to provide for the payment, when due, of the interest and principal of all said bonds maturing in each such fiscal year and in the event the proceeds from the taxes so levied in any such fiscal year shall prove inadequate for the above purposes, additional taxes shall be levied in the succeeding fiscal year to make up any such deficiency. The County may apply to the payment of principal and interest of any bonds issued for one of the projects described in Section 1 hereof, any funds received by it from the State of Maryland, the United State of America, any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from any other source, if such funds are granted for the purpose of assisting the County in obtaining any such project described in Section 1 hereof, and to the extent of any such funds received or receivable in any fiscal year the taxes hereby required to be levied may be reduced proportionately.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the County is hereby further authorized and empowered, at any time and from time to time, to issue its bonds in the manner hereinabove described for the purpose of refunding, upon purchase or redemption, any bonds issued for the projects described in Section 1 hereof. The validity of any such refunding bonds shall in no way be dependent upon or related to the validity or invalidity of the obligations so refunded. The powers herein granted with respect to the issuance of bonds and also the limitations herein on such powers, shall be applicable to the issuance of refunding bonds. Said refunding bonds may be issued by the County for the purpose of providing it with funds to purchase in open market any of its outstanding bonds issued hereunder, prior to the maturity thereof, or for the purpose of providing it with funds for the redemption prior to maturity of any outstanding bonds issued hereunder which are, by their terms redeemable. The resolution authorizing the issue of any such ~~rounding~~ REFUNDING bonds shall describe the issue or issues of bonds of the County so to be re-
