An ACT for the relief of Elam Bailey, of Baltimore county.

Passed December 28.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the turnpike road leading from Baltimore-town to Ellicott's lower mills, runs through the lands of Elam Bailey, and that the valuation of the damages sustained by him in the premises was made by a jury in his absence, and without any previous notice being given him of the time and place appointed for the meeting of such jury: And whereas the said Elam Bailey further representeth, that he hath been greatly injured in his property by the said turnpike road running through his land, and that he is also aggrieved by the valuation of the jury so made in his absence; and this general assembly, being desirous of affording relief,

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of review of the turnpike roads in Baltimore county, on the application of the said Elam Bailey, may issue their warrant, directed to the sheriff of Baltimore county, commanding him to summon and return a jury of good and lawful men of his county, to be and appear before one or more justices of the peace for the said county, on the land of the said Elam Bailey, at a certain day in the said warrant expressed, giving the said Elam Bailey five days previous notice; which jury, upon their oath, to be administered by some justice of the peace, shall inquire what damages the said Elam Bailey will sustain by reason and occasion of carrying such road over and through his said land; and the said jury are hereby required to consider the convenience and benefit, and the disadvantages, if any, by reason of such road passing through such land; and the said sheriff shall return the inquest of the jury, under his and their hands and seals, to the commissioners of review.

Commissioners may issue their warrant, &amp;c.
